

Judo Masters In Melbourne

What's J-MIM?

Judo Masters in Melbourne

When is it?

The Grand Prix has taken our date and all the hotels will be full! So now it will be 24th & 25th March 2012 and Judo Victoria is endorsing it this year. Watch the websites www.judoaustralia.com.au and judovictoria.com.au for further information!

Why do you want to go?

Because I can compete in my own age group and weight division and I believe the first one last March was a lot of fun and you only fight for 2.5 or 3 minutes according to your age. And you should see the medal! It's quite unique!

Are You Going?

Yes! And I've started training.

Melbourne's weather in March is beautiful, isn't it?

Yes! It's autumn, warm days and cold nights and cold beer

Is Kata included?

Yes! Kata and Shiai on Saturday and Shiai on Sunday if the time is needed and a Cocktail Party on Saturday night to catch up with everyone.

What is the minimum age and grade?

30 years on the day and 4th Kyu (orange belt)

Where's the official Hotel?

Yet to be decided!

I'm looking forward to catching up with a lot of old friends from my earlier Judo days

Yes, that's half my reason for going as well!

Whoopee! I'll come too! It should be a good weekend

Yes and the Formula 1 Grand Prix is the previous weekend in Melbourne!

I might go for that as well!
